The Examiner raised the USC 101 issues relating to claim 91, 93-103, where the system claim 91 comprises "software module" without being tangibly embodied on a computer medium and/or processing device. The Applicant's representative agreed to amend the claims to incorporate "at least one processing device; and a storage device storing instructions for causing the at least one processing device to perform operations" the steps of claim 91, 92-103. Further amendment was agreed which are reflected in the Examiner's Amendment.
